NINETEENTH YEAR.

No. 13

TO PUT DOWN NIGHT RIDING.

Representative Kentuckians Form Law And Order League.

CONSTITUTION ADOPTED AND OFFICERS ARE ELECTED.

Louisville, Ky., March 21.—

Inspired with a determination to restore law and order in Kentucky, representative business and professional men from throughout the State met at The Seelbach yesterday afternoon and formed themselves into an organization to be known as the Law and Order League of Kentucky. The main purpose of the organization at present is to put down night riding in the State and to bring to justice to those who for the past few months have been terrorizing people living in the tobacco-growing districts.

Probably fifty men of affairs were in attendance at the meeting yesterday afternoon. It was held behind closed doors in the Red Room at The Seelbach. After adopting a constitution for the government of the organization, officers were elected as follows:

Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, president; James P. Gregory, vice-president; John Stites, treasurer; A. T. Macdonald, secretary.

In the absence of Gen. Buckner, Judge James P. Gregory presided over the meeting, and said that the Law and Order League had only one concern—that of the prevalent lawlessness in Kentucky. He said that it was the intention of the State organization to form local organizations in every county in Kentucky and to uphold the majesty of the law with all the power at its command.

Ernest speeches were made by various representatives present, in which the conditions in Kentucky and the failure of the State legislature to take action on the recommendation of the Governor were discussed at length.

The meeting was called to order at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and continued in session until 6 o'clock. Before adjournment it was decided to prepare an address to the people of Kentucky, which will be given to the public this afternoon.

Following is the constitution, which was unanimously adopted:

First—This organization shall be known as the Law and Order League of Kentucky.

Second—Its purpose shall be to secure and preserve law and order, and to that end to employ every lawful and honorable means.

Third—Every member of a Law and Order League, in good standing, shall be a member of this league upon said County League being admitted to the State League, which shall be done by vote of the Executive Committee.

Fourth—The officers of this organization shall be, a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, to be elected annually and perform the duties usually attaching to such offices.

Fifth—Said officers, with three other persons to be selected annually, shall constitute the Executive Committee of the league. Said committee shall have general direction of the business of the organization and full power and authority to carry out its purposes, its action, however, being subject to review or direction by the Advisory Committee, when a quorum attends and participates. Four members shall constitute a quorum of the Executive Committee, and fifteen a quorum of the Advisory Committee. The Executive Committee or Advisory Committee shall meet at the call of the president, and it shall be the duty of the president to call a meeting of said committees upon written request of a number of members thereof equal to a quorum.

Sixth—Each County League shall have a right to have one representative upon the Advisory Committee of this league, and such Advisory Committee shall have full control of all business of the State League.

Seventh—The Executive Committee shall have power to fill any all vacancies which may occur in any office or in the Executive Committee until the next Annual election.

Eighth—The annual election shall be held on the first Tuesday in each year.

Ninth—This constitution may be amended only by a two-thirds vote of all members of the Advisory Committee present after written or printed notice of not less than ten days of purpose of meeting has been mailed by the secretary to each of the County Leagues.

KILLED STANDING AT HIS DOOR.

Farmer Murdered By Night Riders After Agreeing To Cut Out Crop.

TRAGEDY ENACTED IN THE BLUEGRASS REGION.

Carlisle, Ky., March 21.—A band of night riders early this morning shot and killed Hirian Hedges, a prominent farmer, seven miles northwest of this place. This is the first murder by the night riders in the Bluegrass region of Kentucky. Hedges was an independent tobacco farmer and was widely known over the county. C. H.

Hedges, the 21-year-old son of the murdered man, gives the following account of the murder:

"We were awakened after midnight by some one throwing rocks against our house. My father came into my room carrying his shotgun and said to me: 'There are too many of them out there for me to fight.'

"My father then suggested that we go down to the front door and see what they wanted.

We were both in our night clothes. My father opened the door and looked out. He then said: 'It would be of no use for me to fire into that crowd.'

"My father said: 'What do you gentlemen want?'

"They answered, 'Step out here.'

"My father went out on the porch and said to them: 'What do you want?' But, then, I know who you are. I have been reading the papers. But I want to say to you that I have never done anything but what is right toward the Society. I want to do what is right. I have planted one tobacco bed, and had intended planting another. But if you will go away and not do any harm I will plow up the bed I had intended planting and never put canvas on the beds already planted. This may be a joke, your coming here, but I wish you would go away.'

"Just then some one in the crowd fired a shot, and my father staggered back crying: 'Oh, I am shot.'

"I picked him up and dragged him into his room and laid him on the bed. I then went back to the door and faced the mob.

"One of them called out: 'Where is the old man?'

"I said: 'Gentlemen, you have already shot him. Please go away, I am in trouble. I want some one to help me.'

"Several men put down their guns, and three went into my father's room with me. Three others stood at the door watching us. The three that went to the bed with me looked at my father and turned to the others and said: 'Boys, he is shot. One of them said: 'Well, it was an accident.'

Pay your bills, pay them promptly, pay them pleasantly. It enables other people to pay theirs. Don't forget to pay your subscription "We need the Money."

Ward Stodgill will flag on the Interurban in Bert Southards place. Southard will take the coal train.

SUPPRESSION OF ANARCHY

Uncle Sam Moving to Stamp out Anarchists and Black Handers.

PLENTY OF LAW TO MEET THE CASE.

Washington, March 21.—The department of justice is said to be planning to join forces with the department of commerce and labor and the postoffice department to stamp out anarchism in the United States.

Wholesale suits will possibly be filed against anarchists and black handers.

Investigation of the treason laws seditions and conspiracy has resulted in the discovery of statutes covering endeavors to throw the government.

It is believed that many societies are amendable to the law. The postoffice department debars anarchistic publications from the mails.

HIGH CLASS ENTERTAINMENT.

Mrs. Wm. Calvin Chilton, Mono dramatist, at Temple Theatre To-night—for Benefit of Public School

Tonight Mrs. Wm. Calvin Chilton, Monodramatist, will be seen at Temple Theatre. This is the fourth entertainment of the Lyceum Bureau given for the benefit of the Earlington Public School this season. Principal R. Y. Maxey secured these attractions at no small expense and for the benefit of a most worthy cause, which it was thought would receive the support of the majority of the best people. A number have responded and have greatly enjoyed these high-class entertainments, which have a refining and an elevating tendency.

Mrs. Chilton comes highly recommended as a delightful entertainer. Let all who are interested in the public school and who wish to spend a pleasant evening lend their presence and financial help at the entertainment this evening. This will not only speak well for the town but will help a cause in which every man, woman and child in Earlington should be interested.

Report On Kentucky

Knights Of Pythias.

Owensboro, Ky., March 22.—John W. Carter, grand keeper of records and seals of the Knights of Pythias, has completed his annual report to the supreme keeper of records and seals of subordinate lodges in the grand domain of Kentucky. The report is a most creditable one, and shows the order in a flourishing condition as to numbers, condition of lodges, rate of increase, charitable work and, in all of the phases. The report will be sent to Dr. R. L. O. White, of Nashville, Tenn., supreme recording officer of the order.

The report shows a total membership in Kentucky of 12,062, an increase of 1,033 during the year. This is one of the largest for any year, that for 1906 being 638. Twelve new lodges were instituted during the year. Three lodges forfeited their charters, making a net increase for the year of nine lodges.

The expenditures for the relief work during the year are shown by the report to be $30,330.15. A great deal of money expended in this way is never reported, so the actual amount spent is probably nearer $50,000 than $30,000.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup stimulates the liver and thoroughly cleanses the system and clears the complexion of pimples and blemishes.

It is best laxative for woman and children as it is mild and pleasant and does not grip or sicken. Orino is much superior to pills, aperient waters and all ordinary cathartics as it does not irritate the stomach and bowels.

(Chattanooga Tenn. News.)

Mrs. William Calvin Chilton entertained a large audience at the opera house Friday night, it being the closing lyceum event of these ason. To prove that Mrs. Chilton is a pleasing entertainer, it is only necessary to say that she is a typical southern woman beautiful in person, attractive in manners and with a voice whose cadences are like music. Being of southern blood, she thoroughly understands and appreciates the negro dialect in the fascinating stories by southern writers. She discriminates carefully in the shades of difference between the dialects of the states, and her enunciation in the Virginia story was perfect.

BLAZE IN CHICAGO HOTEL

FIRE FOR A TIME THREATENED ENTIRE DESTRUCTION OF GRAND PACIFIC.

BUT THREE PEOPLE INJURED

Blaze Caused by Crossed Electric Wires Drove Many of the Guests Down the Fire Escapes. Erected in 1871.

Chicago, March 21.—Fire resulting from crossed electric light wires damaged the Grand Pacific hotel Friday to the extent of $100,000 and for a time threatened the entire destruction of the building. No lives were lost, although many of the guests were compelled to make hasty exits by fire escapes, and but three people were injured. Two of these were in the crowd in front of the hotel and were slightly cut by falling glass. The third was a fireman, Walter English, who fell from the fire escape, and suffered a fracture of the left arm. The fire was discovered by James Ryan, a mechanic, who was at work upon the roof of the building. Two weeks ago a portion of the hotel smokestack was blown down in a gale of wind, and Ryan was in charge of a gang which was putting up the new stack. He was in the act of placing a block under one corner of a derrick when a small tongue of flame shot up into his face. He at once gave the alarm.

Not Believed Serious at First.

For a considerable time it was not believed that the fire would be serious. It was generally known that repairs on the smokestack were in progress and when the first clouds of smoke rolled along the roof and drifted down into the hotel court they were generally believed to come either from the defective stack or from the apparatus in use by the workmen on the roof. Manager E. A. Whipple of the hotel for some time contended that there was no fire and assured guests that there was no danger.

He was soon informed by a bellboy, however, that the flames had broken through the roof at the northwest corner of the building and immediately issued orders to warn all guests to leave their rooms and come to the office. The telephone switchboard was at once put into requisition and all guests possible were advised to leave their rooms. A corpse of waiters and other hotel attendants, under the leadership of Frank Copas, steward of the hotel, hurried through the hallways, giving additional warning.

Flames Made Fascinating Sight.

The flames at times shot through the roof thirty feet into the air, forming a fascinating sight for the occupants of the neighboring office buildings, who crowded to the roofs and jammed all available windows which commanded a view of the hotel.

The flames, although several times almost under control, were obstinate and broke out repeatedly in sudden and violent fashion. On one of these occasions a score of firemen who were carrying a lead of hose up one of the fire escapes were caught by the flames and compelled to flee in great haste.

Several of them were slightly scorched about the hands and face before they were able to make their escape.

The federal building, which is just east of the hotel, suffered severely from the dense strangling smoke which poured out of the building. It filled the postoffice and all the department offices so densely that all work in handling the mails and in the court rooms was suspended until the fire was practically under control.

Thief Caught on Fire Escape.

During the progress of the fire two men were arrested while robbing rooms. One of them was discovered by Detective Magnar of the city police force while ransacking a room on the sixth floor. The thief, closely pursued by the officer, ran through the hallway to the fire escape on the Jackson boulevard side of the building and had reached the third floor before he was overtaken by Magnar and dragged in through a window. The chase caused great excitement in the dense crowd which filled the street and the success of the officer was greeted with cheers. Several pickpockets were also taken into custody just outside the building.

The merchants of Earlington are considering forming a commercial

The Easter openings of dry goods and millinery goods are announced this week. Those who are purchasto advertise. Those who want busi-

Rev. W. M. Rogers, of Nashville, Tenn., the street preacher, will preach at the General Baptist church in Earlington the fifth Sunday night in March, and will continue the meeting ten days. Come and hear him; he will do you good.

ing.

If all reports are true Earlington will soon have a city hall on the site now occupied by the old livery stable of Mr. Isaac Davis. The building will have a court room, marshall office, jail and council chamber. This will fill a long felt want.

A circular letter will be sent to please answer these letters or your

One of the prettiest sights and a sure harbinger of spring can be seen in the yard of Mr. Brick Southworth; it is a hardy magnolia tree, and a very rare plant; it is one solid mass of blooms which are pink with a reddish cast, one peculiar feature, is there is not a leaf on the tree. This is a sight well worth seeing.

The St. Bernard drug store has window decorations as is frequently evidenced by their pretty show windows that attract all passers by.

The third quarterly meeting of the
M. E. church South was held Sun-one of his best sermons; after which communion was administered.

Monday evening the business meeting was held at the parsonage.

The performance of Donnelly and Hatfield's minstrel at Temple Theatre Saturday was one of the best shows of the kind ever seen here.
Full of fun from start to finish, the jokes were new and clean, the music and specialties fine. The house was filled to overflowing both gallery and lower floor. The full house which greeted both shows given here last week plainly indicate whether Earlington is a good show town or not.

An order has just been issued from the headquarters of the Kentucky State troops at Frankfort requiring all officers under the rank of Major to pass an examination as to their qualification, morally, physically and mentally to command companies. This is a good move and one that will put the guard of a high plane in every respect. The officers of Company G. do not need this examination but will be compelled to take it and will no doubt rank 1st.

As spring of the year is now approaching it behoves every house keeper to see that their yards, alleys, gullies and ditches are thoroughly cleaned of the accumulation of cans and all trash that are in them.
By every one coming to the front in

One only has to go into the northwest part of Earlington known as Johnson Hill to thoroughly appreciate the thrift and industry of our colored citizen. There are a good many and more being built, new cottages with all modern conveniences that are owned by them. We make this statement without fear of a successful contradiction that there are more homes owned by the colored man in Earlington than any town in the state of twice its size.
What is true of the North-west part is also true of other parts of our city.

The members of Company G.

some very fine scores are being made. The interest manifested by this shooting is bringing a full at-

Etiquette books in the world, for the Eczema, Pimples, Rashes, Blotches, eruptions, etc., quickly eradicated—morals is very much more than a Rickettsia. A man who treats others him may not be entirely polished, but that superficial finish will come from rubbing against other people. There would be no bores in the world if dispensers who gave it to the world, everyone cared to avoid causing discomfort and annoyance to others.

Since the discovery of "A. J. M." PRESCRIPTION, the new skin remedy, it has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the dispensers who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing.
The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative powers at the very outset.

In less serious skin effects, such as Rashes, Blotches, Pimples, Blackheads, Barber Itch, Red Nose, Posion Oak, Posion Ivy, Odored Feet, results show after a few applications, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. A muddy, greasy or sallow complexion is noticeable after a single application. Those who use "A. J. M." PRESCRIPTION for these skin troubles can get it in 50 cts. $1 bottles, (the one-dollar size holds three times the amount of the fifty cent size) at all leading drug stores. Write The A. J. "Organized Virtue since the beginning has been stronger than Organized Vice."

Mr. CANTRILL'S ADDRESS

EDITORIAL IN COURIER-JOURNAL

In his address to members of the Kentucky Union of the American Society of Equity, Mr. Cantrill urges that every effort be made to stamp out lawlessness, and calls attention to the fact that responsibility for the destruction of property in the tobacco counties is laid at the door of the organization. The Courier-Journal has pointed out from time to time the fact that this would be the national result of continues lawlessness, coupled with continued connivance upon the part of the peace officers and continued passivity upon the part of the association planters. Mr. Cantrill urges in a general way that law and order should prevail. He makes no specific suggestions as to how the association planters could prevent night riding. The Courier-Journal has never had the slightest doubt of the association planters to put an end to barn-burning and other outrages. It could have been done when barn-burning began. It could have been done last winter. It could be done now. If there is a will there is a way. Let the will be shown and the way will be plain.

Since Mr. Cantrill, as the president of the Kentucky Union of the American Society of Equity, recognizes the fact that misfortunes to the organization will result from the conclusion of many men in and out of the State, that the organization is responsible for the crimes that have been committed, it may not be impudent to point out some of the causes contributing to the crystallization of public opinion.

Within the last two years a vast amount of property has been burned. Not one man has been convinced. Grand juries have refused to return indictments, peace officers have neglected their duties. The General Assembly neglected its duty. Why?

It is absurd to contend that the State Government and the machinery of the courts could ever have been paralyzed by mere gangs of marauders who burn barns if every member of the American Society of Equity and other organizations had expected himself to create sentiment inimical to barn-burning and dangerous to barn-burners.

When the General Assembly met no measure looking to the abatement of night riding was championed by the association planters. Every bill introduced or proposed with a view to stamping out the existing evil was fought and killed by association planters. A member of the General Assembly made a speech upon the floor of the House threatening the state with a saturnalia of crime in the event that certain legislation was not enacted in the interest of the association. His anarchy went unrebuked. Other efforts to bulldoze the General Assembly by similar methods were made before committees in lobbies and in the legislative halls. While a lawmaker from Western Kentucky promised that his constituents would "wade in blood" to accomplish certain ends. Mr. Hawkins, a leading organizer of the Burley association, published a card in which he threatened every independent tobacco planter who dared to disregard the ultimatum of the night riders with "365 days of hell."

In the Equity news department of the Courier-Journal, edited in part by Mr. Cantrill, it was stated that night riding would continue as long as night hauling should continue, and that the night hauler was the chief obstacle in the way of the association. When a meeting of independent planters was called in Henry county a movement of organized planters resulted in its abandonment upon the score that bloodshed might result. In nearly all of the writing and speaking by the association men there has been in their condemnation of lawlessness a plea in palliation and justification of it. Quite naturally there has gotten abroad the impression that while a majority of the members Kentucky Union of the American Society of Equity are law-abiding men in the sense that they do not and would not engage in acts of violence of the organization has not made vigorous and earnest efforts to put down the night rider.

Speeches condemning lawlessness will have no effect as long as the authorities refuse to act. The authorities will not refuse to act when every member of the American Society of Equity in every tobacco county makes it plain to the peace officer that he desires the conviction of night riders and that his influence will be used against, and his vote cast against, every county officer who does not bestir himself to secure the arrest and conviction of the outlaws. In the interim, is Mr. Cantrill says, the association will be held "responsible to some degree" for the conditions that exist.

GREAT GROWTH OF TELEPHONES

Bell System Shows Marvelous Increase of Lines and Business.

SUBSCRIBERS TO THEORY OF CONSIDERATE PUBLIC CONTROL

Washington, March 23.—The largest public utility company in the world, the American Telephone & Telegraph Company, takes the lead of its class in following the new policies of the large industrial company in the world, the United States Steel Corporation, and the largest railroad company the Pennsylvania, in acting the views of President Roosevelt in regard to corporation management, responsibility and regulation. Mr. Theodore N. Vail, president of the telephone company, has presented a report to stockholders covering the first year of his administration and receiving the thirtieth year of the Bell organization.

This report could not have come from an American corporation in any other era save the present. Mr. Vail gives practical support to the Roosevelt doctrine of physical valuation, as a basis for establishing fair earnings and of improving relations with the public, by applying its test to his own company, and shows that the physical valuation of the Bell system is $34,432,000 in excess of the obligations in the hands of the public, including capital stock at par.

Equally surprising, however, coming from a corporation source are Mr. Vail's views in regard to public control which are made all the more interesting by the fact that they receive the endorsement of his board of directors.

Discussing the failure of competition in the telephone field, Mr. Vail says frankly: "It is continued that if there is to be no competition, there should be public control."

"It is not believed it is independent, intelligent, considerate thorough and just, recognizing as does the Interstate Commerce Commission in its reports recently issued, that capital is entitled to its fair return, and good management or enterprise to its reward."

The Bell system showed a notable increase during the past year despite the panic. In toll lines alone 8349 miles were added which would give a line from the north pole along the earth's axes making a total of 163,218 miles enough to put six poles abreast around the world, with seven poles abreast for one-half the distance. The total lines increased 202,908 in 1907, giving the surprising total of 1,664,081, which would give 66 lines of wire around the earth at the equator with enough left over to put London in telephonic with Perkin. But these totals are as nothing compared to the figures of the exchanges of the Bell companies in the United States, exclusive of lines. Exchange increase by 219 during 1908 as compared with 1907. The total mileage of wire in use for both exchange and toll service was 8,610,592 miles, of which 1,141,687 were added during the dull year of 1907. These figures do not include the miles of wire operated by sub-licenses.

Net earnings increased largely, but the dividend payments made only a small advance.

The number of stations at the end of the year operated directly by the associated companies which constitute the Bell system in the United States was 3,035,533, increase of 308,244. In addition to this number there were 755,816 exchange to toll stations connected to the system by toll and long distance lines, but operated by local, co-operative and rural independent companies or associations having sub license or connection contracts. Adding also the telephones employed for private-line purposes, there was a total of 3,839,000 stations connected to the Bell system as against 3,070,660 stations at the close of the previous year, an increase of 760,340 stations.

MORE WHITECAP NOTICES AND NEGROES FRIGHTENED.

Violence Again Prominent In Marshall County. Fear At Benton.

Benton, Ky., March 22.—Since the whitecap raid on Birmingham, ten days ago, the negroes here have been in a state of terror. There are only thirty-five or forty negroes here and most of them are quiet, industrious and useful citizens. Wednesday night someone put a notice on a telephone post in front of the negroes' quarters in North Benton, warning all negroes in Benton to leave before the next new moon or take the consequences. Since then they are in a state of abject fear and most of them are making hasty preparations to leave.

It is the impression that this notice was put up by some reckless and mischievous boy merely to play on the ears of the negroes.

HUNDREDS HERE WILL WELCOME THE ADVICE.

Put it in Some Safe Place, for it May Come in Handy Some Day.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement in a New York daily newspaper, that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe: try it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce Compound Karrow, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here in town is authority that these ingredients are harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, discomposed waste matter, which caused these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, when it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Frankfort Will Entertain Teachers.

Frankfort, Ky., March 20.—The Frankfort Business Men's Club is already getting ready to give the State Teachers' Association, whose annual convention is to be held here in June, a royal welcome. One thousand teachers are expected to be present, and everything that can be done to make their stay enjoyable will be provided. It is proposed to hold at least one session in the new Capitol. When Frankfort's delegates secured the meeting of the association, one of the inducements held out was that the teachers could have the honor of being the first body to meet in the new State Capitol.

It is believed that the work on the handsome new building will be sufficiently advanced to permit the holding of the sessions in one of the legislative chambers.

Bluegrass Farmers To Plant Hemp.

Lexington, Ky., March 22.—Expectations here are that the Bluegrass grower deprived of tobacco will grow hemp this season. This is worth about $6 per hundred, or one-half the price of tobacco, but it is raised with less trouble, and once out of the ground it need not be touched until it is cut and stacked.

W. J. Loughridge, President of the American Hemp Company, said today that he looks for at least one-fourth again as much hemp in the Bluegrass region as was raised in 1907.

He said that the pest talk in this section was exaggerated, and that there was no reason why as good fiber should not be grown as Manilla, Sisal, Jute, Russian and Italian.

CONGRESSIONAL

The senate, without division, passed the ocean mail subsidy bill. Senator La Follette Friday introduced a bill providing for the appointment of a tariff commission. In offering it, he said there was some question as to whether it could properly be presented as a senate bill, because it incorporated his views he proposed to address the senate upon it in the near future. Meanwhile he wanted it to lie on the table.

The house committee on naval affairs Friday decided to report favorably the bills introduced by Mr. Butler of Pennsylvania, establishing the rank of machinists in the navy as warrant officers and increasing the pay of mates to $1,206 at sea, $1,080 on shore and $460 on leave or waiting orders.

The house committee on the District of Columbia reported favorably a bill to provide for registration of all cases of tuberculosis in the district for free examination of sputum in suspected cases, and for other measures to prevent the spread of the disease in the district.

A house bill increasing the pay of persons engaged in the life-savings service of the United States was passed by the senate Friday, with an amendment giving to a dependent mother the same pension allowances as the bill gives to a widow.

The fortifications bill, carrying a total appropriation of $5,210,611 instead of the $3,442,945 asked for by the war department, was reported to the house committee on appropriations by Chairman Smith of the subcommittee felt, aside from other considerations, that to recommend an appropriation of $38,000,000 for fortifications at this time was an action which might be reasonably construed by Japan as an official declaration that the United States was preparing against a war with that nation.

Providing that appeals from the district court of Alaska may be heard either at Seattle, Wash., Portland, Ore., or San Francisco, Cal.; granting to local steamboat inspectors authority to pass upon the fitness of officers and crews of steam vessels; reorganizing the consular service, and amending the game laws of Alaska so as to substitute the license system for the present permit system.

The senate considered the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill and after some criticism of the action of the conferees on minor provisions the report was disagreed to and another conference asked.

Senator Bacon of Georgia, in the senate, Friday spoke of executive encroachments on the legislative power of the government and read freely from newspaper reports to show that legislation is being mapped out in the White House at conferences at which congressmen are not even present.

Declaring that the recent financial stringency was brought about by the influence of "Standard Oil" and J. Pierpont Morgan, Senator La Follette of Wisconsin, in a speech recently closing the debate on the Aldrich currency bill Tuesday denounced men high in the financial world.

The senate Thursday passed the widows' pension bill, providing that every soldier's widow now receiving less than $12 per month shall receive a minimum of $12 hereafter, upon proof of her husband's death, and without proof that his death was from causes incident to his military service. The bill has already passed the house.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts Thursday strongly indorsed the pending currency bill in the senate and declared that it would be serviceable as an emergency measure and would not prevent the enactment of a general currency law which, he declared, he hoped to see realized in the future on the basis of a central bank.

PRAYERS FOR GOV. GUILDFORD

Physicians Report Patient's Condition Not So Comfortable.

Boston, Mass., March 23.—The physicians in attendance upon Governor Guild were obliged to report Sunday night that the condition of their patient had taken a slightly unfavorable turn and that he could not be said to be as comfortable as on Saturday. The first bulletin of the morning said the governor had passed a favorable night and had taken liquid nourishment well, but there was a different tone in the later bulletins.

Prayers for the complete recovery of the governor were on the lips of probably every pastor in every pulpit in the city Sunday. Many expressions of deep sympathy were given.

There were many who called at the residence yesterday and left kindly messages.

A number of telegrams were also received.

Senator Tillman Improved.

Columbia, S. C., March 23.—United States Senator B. R. Tillman, who has been seriously ill at his home, is regarded as very much better. Dr. T. J. Hunter, the attending physician, stated last night that Senator Tillman passed a good night and was much improved Sunday. He retained his nourishment and it is expected he will be out in a few days.

BLOW TO RATE LAWS

THE SUPREME COURT DECIDES AGAINST MINNESOTA 2C FARE.

DECISION MAY AFFECT MISSOURI

Federal Statutes Supreme When in Conflict with State, Is the Opinion.

Washington, March 24.—In a decision of wide importance, especially to Missouri, which state is a party to similar litigation, the supreme court of the United States Monday upholds the United States court of Minnesota in finding Attorney General Young of that state for contempt in trying to enforce the Minnesota 2-cent railway rate law.

Attorney General Hadley of Missouri appeared in behalf of Attorney General Young in the action before the supreme court and decision is adverse to Hadley's contentions.

There was a strong dissenting opinion by Justice Harlan, which some lawyers in congress thought but little short of sensational, but the opinion of the court is expected to have a marked and decisive effect upon state legislatures and those who in adherence to state laws overlook the strong hand of the federal government in the regulation of interstate affairs.

State Statutes Swept Aside.

In effect, the opinion of the United States supreme court holds that where there is conflict between state and federal statutes the state must be swept aside. Stripped of legal verbiage, it develops from the opinion that when a state deliberately sets out to prevent its citizens from seeking redress in the federal courts, by providing penalties which are so excessive as to be designed clearly to restrain them from such recourse, they are plainly unconstitutional.

Up to this time there has been more or less question as to the attitude of the court in a case where such a thin line may be drawn between state and federal authority. There are decisions on both sides.

Similar Carolina Decision.

The Minnesota decision, taken in connection with another opinion, upholding the Judge Pritchard decision in the Southern railway cases, is said to set at rest all controversy over the point. Both decisions are taken to mean the general strengthening of the federal power and of the authority of the central government over all interstate matters or matters which have been held to come under the commerce provisions of the federal constitution.

The whole effect of the decision is expected to be to put a damper upon state legislatures, which, feeling the tremors of the reform wave, have been passing rigorous laws dealing with railroads, and upon state officials who have sought to enforce these laws.

Reichstag Debates Not Printed.

Berlin, March 21.—The newspapers of Berlin and the provinces have unanimously decided not to print a word of the Reichstag debates until adequate retraction is offered for the insulting expression of "Swine," addressed to reporters' gallery Thursday by Herr Greber, leader of the center party, because Jews had come from this division at a statement used by a member to the effect that negroes also had immortal souls.

Gen. Fock Can Not Duel Again.

St. Petersburg, March 20.—The condition of Lieutenant General Smirnoff remains unchanged. The extraction of the bullet is still regarded as dangerous. The duel between Generals Fock and Gorbatowsky will not take place, owing to intervention from an authoritative source.

Japs Donate to Welcome Fleet.

San Diego, Cal., March 21.—Local Japanese turned over Friday to the general reception committee $211 as their contribution toward the welcome of the American battleship fleet. Nearly all the donors are servants and laborers, the amounts given ranging from 25¢ to $5.

ATTEMPTED BLACKMAIL.

So-Called Private Detectives Tried to Blackmail Chicago Officers.

Chicago, March 20.—Four so-called private detectives were arrested here last night, charged with having attempted to blackmail Mayor Busse, Chief of Police Shippy and Alderman M. J. Foreman of the Third ward out of sums approximating $100,000.

Harry Shindler, John R. Maroney, William J. Mullane and Charles Huxhold are the prisoners. They claimed they were employed by a regular organization, composed of South Side clergymen, to investigate vice and crime conditions in the district inclosed by Twenty-sixth and Thirty-fifth streets, and it is charged by the city authorities that the men tried to obtain money by threatening to publish exposures of conditions in that district. The ministers who compose the organizations assert that they believed the men to be reputable private detectives.

Dead Infant in the Mail.

Denver, March 24.—Postmaster C. Olerach of Portales, N. M., has reported to E. L. McKee, chief postoffice inspector of the Rock Mountain region, the discovery of the body of a dead infant in the mails. The package was addressed to Roy W. Carr, Roswell, N. M., and bore the return address of Ida Rhodes Carr, Woodstock, Ill. Under the cover of the package was the following unsigned: "I did not know what else to do. Burn or do something right away. Do not open."

Employees Against Rate Reduction.

Lincoln, Neb., March 24.—F. M. Ryan, a Burlington engineer, representing a joint committee of railroad employees, protested Monday to the state railway commission against any further reduction of freight rates in Nebraska. The employees believe it will further reduce their own wages.

The commission promised a hearing to the full committee before taking any further action.

Aeroplane Breaks Record.

Paris, March 21.—Henry Farman, the English aeronaut, Friday eclipsed all previous records for aeroplane flying by making a circular flight with his machine of over two kilometers (a kilometer is about three-quarters of a mile). The machine mounted to a considerable height and Mr. Farman turned and swerved it with the greatest daring to show that the machine was under perfect control. The spectators gave the aeronaut an ovation when he landed.

Jumped from Brooklyn Bridge.

New York, March 21.—An unknown youth of about 20 years, wearing the uniform of the United States navy, minus the cap, plunged head foremost from the Brooklyn bridge Friday and was drowned. He turned over twice on the way, but came to the surface and swam to a pier on the Manhattan side. A watchman threw a rope to him, but the swimmer was apparently too exhausted to reach it and sank.

Urge Department of Labor.

Washington, March 21.—At the concluding session of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, it was decided to urge upon the house committee on labor the necessity for the passage of the pending bill creating a department of labor, the head of which shall be a member of the president's cabinet. It was also decided to make vigorous effort to secure the passage of laws by the various state legislatures for the abolition of child labor.

"Black Hand" Threat Falls.

Macon, Ga., March 23.—Although the time is up for Nick Carshell, who received a threatening letter signed by the "Black Hand," to place $300 under the largest tree on Coleman's Hill, there has been no serious outcome of the letter.

CORONER'S JURY EXONERATES SLAYERS OF AVERBUCH.

MORE THAN A SCORE ARE EXAMINED

Verdict Followed an Exhaustive Inquiry Into Circumstances Surrounding the Shooting.

Chicago, March 25.—A coroner's jury last night declared Chief of Police Shippy and J. F. Foley, his driver, to have been justified in killing Averbuch, the young Russian Jew, who attacked the chief in his home recently.

The verdict was rendered after a short deliberation following an exhaustive inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the shooting.

More than a score of witnesses were examined, among them Olga Averbuch, sister of the dead man; Chief Shippy himself, his son Harry, who is recovering from an all but fatal shot through the chest received in the affray, and other members of the chief's household.

The verdict, after a perfunctory recital of the jury's finding as to the cause of Averbuch's death, read as follows:

"From the testimony presented, we, the jury, believe that said shooting was justifiable and exonerate said George M. Shippy and James F. Foley from blame."

Four Night Riders Killed

Evidence Coming Out That Raiders Have Suffered Serious Loss

ESTIMATE OF KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Kentucky Home Defenders Have Given Some Account of Themselves.

Frankfort, Ky., March 24.—A letter just received by Gov. Willson shows that night riding is getting to be dangerous to the Ku-Klux as well as unlawful. The Governor has news of a man who saw the gang march to Birmingham mounted, both going and coming, and there was one less came back than went out.

Of those who returned one man was lying on his stomach across the saddle of his horse, evidently severely wounded, and another was held in the saddle by a man riding behind.

One man is at his home with both eyes shot out. Four others are visited secretly at night by a doctor, who goes to them after people have retired and returns home thinking he is unseen.

According to Gov. Willson's correspondent, there were three secret burials in one of the night rider counties and one in another.

The Governor has a report upon the negroes during the raid. The marauders went to an old negro's house, and when he was ordered he came out holding up both his hands, and his wife, with a three-year-old baby in her arms, came by his side.

All were shot together by the mob. There were two negro men stopping in the house, and they attempted to escape by the back way, but ran into a large crowd of the night riders. In their desperation they fired their guns and fought until they made their escape in their confusion. It was a brave fight for life and liberty.

It is estimated from various reports received here that in the past three weeks no fewer than sixteen of the night-riders have been killed and wounded.

Information is also at hand that tobacco growers in various parts of the State have successfully repulsed the visits of members of this organization.

Sad Death Of Mrs. M. A. Drake.

The death of Mrs. M. A. Drake which occurred Sunday at the home of her daughter in Bakers, Tenn., where she had gone on a visit, was a shock to her family and friends.

Mrs. Drake was ill one week of lagrippe, but was not thought to be in a critical condition until a short while before her death. She had made this place her home for a number of years and was highly respected and loved by those who knew her; she was a devout christian woman and a member of the Southern Methodist church at this place. She was the mother of twelve children, nine of whom are living, her husband having died several years ago. She was 65 years of age. Seven of her children attended the funeral services, Mrs. Charlie Webb being one of them. Two sons of Oklahoma and Texas, were not able to each here in time. The burial was at Goodlets, Tenn. Services were conducted by Rev's Gregory and Cotton.

B. L. RASH BADLY CUT.

Pruning Fruit Trees With Sharp Hatchet Which Slips and Cuts Wrist.

Mr. B. L. Rash, of Madisonville, yesterday happened to a painful accident that might have been very serious. He was pruning some fruit trees with a sharp hatchet when a glancing blow landed the sharp blade on Mr. Rash's wrist. Dr. Gardiner who attended him says the tendons and blood vessels were not all severed. One tendon may have been cut but it is not thought the injury will prove serious.

Mining

The Mining News in and Around Earlington

Joseph Whitticar, a pioneer coal operator, died at his home at Greensburg, O., aged 76 years. For many years he operated the Whitticar coal mines near Greentown. A widow, two sons and two daughters survive.

After many years of continuous service two boilers at the plant of the Menominee, Mich., water company have been taken out and replaced by new ones. At the same time arrangements were made for discontinuing the use of wood and burning coal. Wood has been burned in the fire hole ever since the plant was started. The wood has been plentiful up to the present time, but of late it has grown scarce that prices are going up. The officials intend to arrange for coal shortly as it will be as cheap if not cheaper than wood, and will give better results.

Last Friday, March 13, the Maplewood Coal Company, at Farming-

FOUND CUTICURA INDISPENSABLE

For Her Children—Little Girls Suffered with Itching Eczema Which Simply Covered Back of Heads—Baby Had a Tender Skin, Too.

ALL PROMPTLY CURED BY “WONDERFUL OINTMENT”

“Some years ago my three little girls had a very bad form of eczema. Itching eruptions formed on the backs of their heads which were simply covered. Before I heard of Cuticura, I used to try almost everything, but they failed. Then my mother recommended the Cuticura Remedies. I washed my children's heads with Cuticura Soap and then applied the wonderful ointment, Cuticura. I did this four or five times a day and they have been entirely cured. I have another baby who is so plump that the folds of skin on his neck were broken and even bled. I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and the next morning the trouble had disappeared. I am using the Cuticura Remedies yet whenever any of my family have any sores. I can never recommend Cuticura sufficiently; it is indispensable in every home. I cannot find its equal. Mine, Napoleon Duceppe, 41 Duluth St., Montreal, Que., May 21, 1907.”

About eight months ago I commenced to use Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills. I used two sets and it is now all healed up. Mrs. E. F. Ryder, West Brewster, Mass., April 29, 1907.”

HINTS ON ROAD WORK.

U. S. Office Of Public Roads Tells How To Make And Maintain A Model Earth Road.

GIVES PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS.

While American road builders are as capable of constructing good roads as those of any country of the old world, they have not been as loyally supported as the men of those countries in maintaining the highways after completion, and the deplorable state of many hundred thousand miles of road is thus accounted for. County and township officials may at the outset stand the expense of having a road built, but they strenuously object when asked to provide funds to rebuild the road that has been allowed to go to ruin.

It is important that farmers learn of the benefits to be derived from good earth roads; that county boards be impressed with the need of a proper maintenance of the same, and that road builders and overseers learn how best to care for the roads in their charge.

The persistent and powerful enemies of earth roads are water and narrow tires, and the constant effort of the men in charge of the roads should be to guard against their destructive effects and remedy all damage as quickly as possible. The simple implements which have been found to be of greatest assistance in this work are the plow, the drag scraper, the wheel scraper, the road grader, and the split-log drag.

With a sandy soil and a subsoil of clay, or clay and gravel, deep plowing so as to raise and mix the clay with the surface soil and sand will prove beneficial. The combination forms a sand clay road at a trifling expense. On the other hand, if the road be entirely of sand a mistake will be made if it is plowed unless clay can be added. Such plowing would merely deepen the sand, and at the same time break up the small amount of hard surface material which may have formed. If the subsoil is clay and the surface scant in sand or gravel, plowing should not be resorted to, as it would result in a clay surface rather than one of sand or gravel. A road foreman must know not only what to plow and what not to plow, but how and when to plow. If the road is of the kind which according to the above instructions should be plowed over its whole width, the best method is to run the first furrow in the middle of the road and work out to the sides, thus forming a crown. Results from such plowing are greatest in the spring or early summer.

In ditches, a plow can be used to good advantage, but should be followed by a scraper or grader. To make wide, deep ditches nothing better than the ordinary drag scraper has yet been devised. For hauls under 100 feet, or in making “fills” it is especially serviceable. It is a mistake, however, to attempt to handle long haul material with this scraper, as the wheel scraper is better adapted to such work.—For hauls of more than 800 feet, a wagon should be used.

The machine most generally used in road work is the grader, or road machine. This machine is especially useful in smoothing and crowning the road and in opening ditches. A clay subsoil under a thin coating of soil should not be disturbed with a grader. It is also a mistake to use a grader indiscriminately and to pull material from ditches upon a sane-clay road. Not infrequently turf, soil and silt from ditch bottoms are piled in the middle of the road in a ridge, making mudholes a certainty. It is important in using a grader to avoid building up the road too much at one time. A road gradually built up by frequent use of the grader will last better than if completed at one operation. The foreman frequently thinks his road must be high in the first instance. He piles up material from 10 inches to a foot in depth only to learn, with the arrival of the first rain, that he has furnished the material for as many inches of mud. All material should be brought up in thin layers, each layer well puddled and firmly packed by roller or traffic before the next is added. A common mistake is to crown too high with the road machine on a narrow road.

The split log drag should be used to fill in ruts and smooth the road when not too badly washed. The drag possesses great merit and is so simple in construction and operation that every farmer should have one. A special article will be published later telling how to make and use the drag.

CANT BE SEPARATED.
Some Earlington People Have Learned
How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and Kidney ache are twin brothers.

Yog can't separate them.

And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong healthy kidneys.

H. M. Coffman, living on Hall St., Madisonville, Ky., says: “I used Doan's Kidney Pills and from the results obtained I highly recommended them as a very effective kidney remedy. When I began their use I was suffering from a severe attack of backache. It was not a constant steady aching pain, but was sharp twinges that caught me when attempting to raise from a stooped position or doing anything that caused a strain on the muscle of the back. I used two boxes of Doan's Kidney pills at the time, which apparently cured the attack. Some time latter there was a reoccurrence of the trouble and I again appealed to their use and was cured. For about six weeks I have been entirely free from the annoyance and I heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.”

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Malaria Is Rechristened.
Malaria, which has in the past been attributed to poisonous gases from swamps and decaying vegetation, has now been officially laid at the door of the mosquito, and is called ‘mosquito fever.’ The international sanitary congress changed the name formally and officially.

Dangers of Pneumonia.
A cold at this time if neglected is liable to cause pneumonia which is often fatal, and even when the patient has recovered the lungs are weakened, making them peculiarly susceptible to the development of consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar will stop the cough, heal and strengthen the lungs and prevent pneumonia. La Grippe coughs and colds yield to the wonderful curative qualities of Foleys Honey and Tar. There is nothing else “just as good.” John X. Taylor.

MISERY OR PESSIMISM.
Pessimism is the work of the timid man, of the man who has so little faith in himself that he feels that however he suffers or is oppressed under present conditions he will be still less able to take care of himself under any others.

$100 paid by Dr Shoop for any recent case of grippe or acute cold that a 25 cent box of Preventives will not break. How is this for an offer? The Doctor's supreme confidence in these little Candy Cold Cure Tablets—Preventives—is certainly complete. It's a $100 against 25 cents—pretty big odds. And Preventives, remember, contain no quinine, or laxative, nothing harsh nor sickening. Pneumonia would never appear if early colds were always broken, safe and sure for feverish children. 48 Preventives 25¢.

New Use for Seaweed.
Agar-agar, derived from Chinese seaweed, may possibly replace gelatin as a basis for photographic processes. Lecturing before the Royal Photographic society, W. F. Cooper said that it would in time mark a revolution in photographic emulsion making.

The Lucky Quarter
is the one you pay out for a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They bring you the health that's more precious than jewels. Try them for headache, biliousness, constipation and malaria. If they disappoint you the price will be cheerfully refunded at all leading druggists.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Possibly, you never heard of it. It is almost unknown, actually diseased. It is almost unknown, it hides tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve, very needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more energy, more strength. Without that the Heart must give way, and the stomach and kidneys also have the same controlling nerves.

This nearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Dr. Shoop does so much for weak and ailing Hearts. Dr. Shoop does so much for the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these organs; it offers no stimulants; it builds up strength; it offers no nervous centers. It builds up strength; it offers no nervous centers.

If you would have strong Hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish the same controlling nerves.
